

I have heard that there is consideration of weakening Wisconsin's no call list. I urge you not to do so. The no call list is a wonderful asset to WI residents. In fact, I would like to see a similar list for non-profit agencies and political agencies.